Aids to Worship

As we strive to give God the worship He desires, we should use whatever means are appropriate to help us in that effort. The following suggestions are some of the things that can aid us.

Meditation. Taking time to quiet ourselves and to think of God and His goodness will help us to prepare our hearts for worship. (Psalm 63:3,4; 89:1-11; 119:15; Philippians 4:8).

Confession. The person who truly understands the glory of God will realize his need for confession and cleansing (Isaiah 6:6,7). God wants worship that comes from a clean heart (I John 1:7-10).

Music. The use of music and musical instruments can add much to our worship (Psalm 150; Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16).

Orderliness. Our worship of God should not be haphazard or disorganized. It should be done in an orderly fashion (I Corinthians 14:40).

Prayer. Talking to God helps us to focus our minds on the things of God and makes us conscious of His presence (I Timothy 2:1-8; Hebrews 4:16).

Giving. By our gifts and offerings we express gratitude to God in a tangible way. We acknowledge His ownership of all that we possess, and we show that we are trusting Him to provide for our needs (2 Corinthians 9:6-15).

Bible Study. Whether it be from the pulpit, in a Sunday school class, or in a home Bible study, the instructions of God's Word helps to equip us to be better worshippers of God (2 Timothy 3:16,17; 4:1,2).
