Copies are at the Info Center.

New church cleaning schedule-available at the Info Center.

David and Michelle Pierce were not able to be with us several weeks ago because of the weather. They hoped to share their ministry with Ethnos 360 (formerly New Tribes Mission) and update us about their family. They're going to be grandparents soon! The next day they were able to drop off prayer cards, a recent prayer letter, and two editions of Ethos 360 magazine. The cover stories are "Portrait of a Missions-Minded Church" and "Embers Fanned into Flame." These materials can be found on the table in the Missions Corner. Pray for their ministries in Ministry Advancement, writing and communicating stories about those who are sent and the churches that send workers, as well as coming alongside college students at their college in Florida.

The Answered Prayers

We know not what we should pray for as we ought.

Romans 8:26

I prayed for strength, and then I lost awhile
All sense of nearness, human and divine;
The love I leaned on failed and pierced my heart;
The hands I clung to loosed themselves from mine;
But while I swayed, weak, trembling, and alone,
The everlasting arms upheld my own.

I prayed for light; the sun went down in clouds,
The moon was darkened by a misty doubt,
The stars of heaven were dimmed by earthly fears,
But all my little candle flames burned out;
But while I sat in shadow, wrapped in night,
The face of Christ made all the darkness bright.

I prayed for peace, and dreamed of restful ease,
A slumber drugged from pain, a hushed repose;
Above my head the skies were black with storm,
And fiercer grew the onslaught of my foes;
But while the battle raged, and wild winds blew,
I heard His voice, and perfect peace I knew.

I thank You, Lord, You were too wise to heed
My feeble prayers, and answers as I sought,
Since these rich gifts Your bounty has bestowed
Have brought me more than I had asked or thought,
Giver of good, so answer each request
With Your own giving, better than my best.
