Pray for: Debbie Vik in Thailand

- As she works on a project of changing their language evaluations to be more objective and cost effective. Working on this requires her to learn a lot of new technical things.
- A new missionary family is arriving in August. Pray for them as they will need to go thru quarantine, and then get settled and start with language study.

Reminder: VBS Staff Meeting today after the Worship Service

VBS Offering project—"Share The Well"

We want to raise $1500 to help cover the cost of drilling a new well in Burkina Faso. Clean water increases the quality of life, preventing disease and illness. It also gives opportunity for people to hear about Jesus. Water bottle reminders are on the table near the well in the foyer. Mark your offering envelope "VBS Project."

Alliance Life Magazine: The July/August issue is now available at the Info Center. The focus is on the various aspects of healing—spiritual, emotional, physical, etc. Insights are offered on "trusting God when we don't understand," "serving the sick" and "how processing our grief leads to healing."

Ushers for today: Clint Gerlach and Brian Schmidt

Ushers for next week: Tom Kiser and Ron Straub

Sound System for today: David Schneider

Sound System for next week: Jeff Michalski

Church cleaning this week: Linda B. and Kristy

End of Construction

-Today's Daily Bread

He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ.

-Philippians 1:6

One day Billy and Ruth Graham were driving through a long stretch of road construction. They had numerous slow-downs, detours, and stops along the way. Finally they reached the end of all that difficulty, and smooth pavement stretched out before them. This sign caught Ruth's attention: "End of construction. Thanks for your patience." She commented that those words would be a fitting inscription on her tombstone someday.

As a matter of fact, those words fit all of us as believers, because in this life we are "under construction." When we accept Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, we begin the lifelong process of spiritual growth. The Holy Spirit works in us to remove our selfishness (Philippians 2:4), to renew our thinking (Romans 12:2), and to develop qualities in us that are more and more Christlike (Colossians 3:5-14). Paul described this process as a work of God. He said, "He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Philippians 1:6).

As we travel heavenward, let's cooperate with God's construction of our lives. When His work in us is complete, "we shall be like Him" (I John 3:2), perfectly conformed to our Savior's likeness.

*More about Jesus let me learn,
More of His holy will discern;
Spirit of God, my teacher be,
Showing the things of Christ to me.*
