International Workers of the month: Joyce Johns in Cambodia
Joyce minister at the Regional Training Center for Nurses and Students. She assists in training and leads Bible studies among the students and faculty. She was with us a few years ago for our Missions Festival. As we are doing missions giving differently now, all money given to missions (Great Commission Fund) will go directly to her support this month, and not to the general GCF of the C&MA.

Resource from Focus on the Family: Lighthouse Voices. The purpose is to enable people to be light in the darkness, community, world and culture. Unlock the tools you need to navigate today's cultural landscape with confidence and compassion. As a partnership between Focus on the Family and The Colson Center, Lighthouse Voices empowers you to address complex issues with informed insight. "Our speakers arm you with the latest faith-based insights on such subjects as racial tensions, gender identity, the societal impact of abortion, the mental illness epidemic and how to address it, and how to help children build biblical character" The site is: FocusontheFamily.com/Lighthouse-Voices

I have concluded that the accumulation of wealth, even if I could achieve it, is an insufficient reason for living. When I reach the end of my days, a moment or two from now, I must look backward on something more meaningful than the pursuit of houses and land and machines and stocks and bonds. Nor is fame of any lasting benefit. I will consider my earthly existence to have been wasted unless I can recall a loving family, a consistent investment in the lives of people, and an earnest attempt to serve the God who made me. Nothing else makes much sense.
