Announcements

International Workers of the month: Michael and Lia Strand in Bosnia-Herzegovina

- Pray for them with life transitions they are going thru. Their youngest 2 kids graduated from high school and have next steps in view.
- Pray that they (and us) would be the aroma of Christ in our presence with people and that God would use our life experiences and skills.

Update on Missions Giving: $1,006 was given to the Scott family in May. They sent a thank you for the generous donation for their ministry in Kosovo. "We are truly grateful for your prayers and financial support."

Join us for a Snack & Yack after the service today as we honor our dads! All songs this morning have been chosen by randomly selected dads from our church family.

"The Great Jungle Journey" VBS

July 22-26

9am-11am

- ◆ Ribbit! Most of the world's frogs live in jungles, including some crazy-looking ones like glass frogs, tomato frogs, the Surinam horned frog, and the hairy frog.
- ◆ Want to meet a freaky big frog? Then check out the Goliath frog. It's the biggest frog in the world at over 12 inches in length and seven pounds in weight, making it bigger than some house cats. Any ideas why they nicknamed it the Goliath frog?

Positive Character Qualities of a Father

Always Daddy's Girl by H. Norman Wright, pp. 193-15

Let me give you several positive character qualities of a father. Notice how these qualities, if they existed in your father, have positively influenced your perception of God.

If your father was patient, you are more likely to see God as patient and available for you. You feel that you are worth God's time and concern. You feel important to God and that He is personally involved in every aspect of your life.

If your father was kind, you probably see God acting kindly and graciously on your behalf. You feel that you are worth God's help and intervention. You feel God's love for you deeply and you're convinced that He wants to relate to you personally.

If your father was a giving man, you may perceive God as someone who gives to you and supports you. You feel that you are worth God's support and encouragement. You believe that God will give you what is best for you, and you respond by giving of yourself to others.

If your father accepted you, you tend to see God accepting you regardless of what you do. God doesn't dump on you or reject you when you struggle, but understands and encourages you. You are able to accept yourself even when you blow it or don't perform up to your potential.

If your father protected you, you probably perceive God as your protector in life. You feel that you are worthy of being under His care and you rest in His security.

What Are Fathers Made of?

Paul Harvey

A father is a thing that is forced to endure childbirth without an anesthetic.

A father is a thing that growls when it feels good—and laughs very loud when it's scared half to death.

A father never feels entirely worthy of the worship in a child's eyes. He's never quite the hero his daughter thinks, never quite the man his son believes him to be—and this worries him, sometimes. So he works too hard to try and smooth the rough places in the road for those of his own who will follow him.

A father is a thing that gets very angry when the first school grades aren't as good as he thinks they should be. He scolds his son though he knows it's the teacher's fault.

Fathers are what give daughters away to other men who aren't nearly good enough so they can have grandchildren who are smarter than anybody's.
