Announcements

International Workers this month: Rob and Heidi Scott in Kosovo

◆ They serve through a community Center as a bridge between unbelievers and the church.
All funds given to missions this month will go directly to support them and their ministries unless otherwise designated.

Membership classes—Membership includes voting privileges, and ability to hold office or lead ministries. Classes will cover what the Bible says about the church, history of our denomination, our church history, opportunity to ask questions and more. Prospective members must also share their testimony of how they came to know Christ as Savior to the elders and pastor. The second class will be TODAY.

Christmas Decorating Plans: We will be decorating the church for Christmas a bit earlier this year—before Thanksgiving—since Thanksgiving is so late. Our plan is:

- ◆ Chili supper and Big Tree Decorating on Friday, November 22. Starting at 4:00pm/Chili at 6:00pm/finish the tree after eating
- ◆ Decorate the rest of the church on Saturday, November 23 at 9:00am, continuing until done.

Love offering for Missions Festival Speaker—This is a way to express your appreciation to her. The offering will be received next week. Please mark your gift accordingly.

Thanksgiving Eve Service— Wednesday, November 27 at 6:30pm. Let Pastor know if you'd like to share thru a Scripture that's meaningful to you, a song, words to a song, reading etc. There'll be time to join in singing and sharing praises.

Love Lights for the Holidays—This event is a way to honor the memory of loved ones who've died. A memorial ceremony will be held Saturday, December 7, at 5:00pm at the Gazebo across the river from the fire station. The event includes a tree lighting. More info about the event and how to purchase a "Love Light" is in the bulletin insert.

Here's an approach to praying for your international workers: devote each day of the week for a different major area of their lives.

Sunday: Worship the Lord. Be grateful for Christ's work of salvation for them

Monday: Inner life and growth. For spiritual disciplines. For confidence in God's sovereignty when things go wrong. For God's mighty touch in relieving stress.

Tuesday: Relationships. With their spouse and children, with co-workers, with unbelievers, and with authorities in their country.

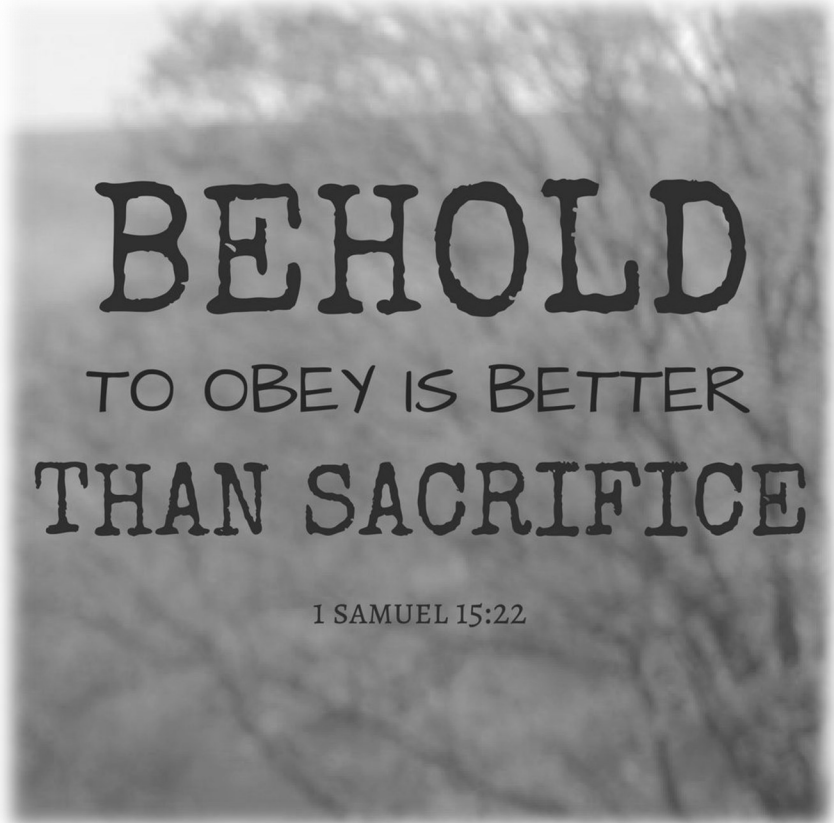

Wednesday: Special needs and stress of living in a foreign culture. Mastering the language. Defense against loneliness, homesickness, frustration. Insights into how to communicate the truth. God's sovereign working in government decisions and policies.

Thursday: Ministry. For Christ to be manifested through their lives day by day. For God to empower them for their work. For His full blessing on their evangelism, discipling, teaching, administration.

Friday: The nitty-gritty. Physical health. Financial provision. Coping with red tape. Wise use of time. For strength and faith in trials. That they will take adequate time for exercise, relaxation.

Saturday: Victory. Against Satan as he seeks to keep people blinded to the gospel and thwart the growth of believers.

Praying for missions is not a fringe activity from God's point of view. By praying you can play a major role in God's great purposes.
